

It Is Finished!

Jeremi and Amy Richardson

A bitter taste
The bleeding wounds
His boundless grace to me
The magnitude of mystery
His majesty displayed

My darkness came crashing down
As the King of Heaven spoke aloud:

"It is finished!"
There no chains holding me
It is finished
by His words I'm free
It is finished
and forever I'm changed
He sings over me
It is finished, finished, finished

A silent fight gaining strength
My restless mind in chains
I was in agony and solitude
When He called out my name

My broken heart began to beat
When His blood stained body reached to me

"It is finished!"
There no chains holding me
It is finished
by His words I'm free
It is finished
and forever I'm changed
He sings over me
It is finished, finished, finished

My sin and shame
Have been erased
Finished, it is finished
My hope restored

and joy reborn
Finished, it is finished

No chains on me
I've been set free
Finished, it is finished
I've overcome through the blood Finished ...
