

What Happened (feat. Lil Wayne)

2 Chainz

Uh, what happened, what happened?
Yeah, damn, girl, what happened?
What happened? What happened?
What happened?
I thought you weren't fucking with me no more
Damn, girl, what happened?
I thought you wasn't fucking with me no more
What happened?
What happened? She said ooh, you got that comeback
She said my dick is a necessity
Drop my drawers, and pull out my longevity
She just hop on it, and then she forget everything
Ooh she so open, who's obsessed with me
When she leave me, she come back like she ain't never leave
She talk bad about my new bitch, 'cause we got chemistry
She said it ain't jealousy, allegedly
I thought you wasn't fucking with me no more, girl what happened?
You act like you don't miss me, oh my god you suck at acting
I'm like I thought you wasn't fuckin' with me no more, girl I'm laughing
She said she get real when the vibrator out of batteries
She be talking about how she moving on with her life
She tired of my shit and she can do better
She told herself; she ain't fucking with me no more
She done lied to herself, she'll lie to who whatever
Talking about, she seen me with such and such
I say it's nothing, it's just fucking dust
She said yeah right nigga, what I look like?
I said just like my next daughter
She said ooh, you make me sick
I love you, I hate you, I'm leaving, I'm lying
'Cause none of them niggas, can never be you
They can never be you, the O nor the Y
If she's over me, I look up in the sky
I see her falling for me like a bomb
She said, I know you'll miss me when I'm gone
I just cosign and we make up for lost time
She always say, this is the last time
She love better, than she lie
She always say, this is the last time

She said that last time, wait I thought you wasn't fucking with me no more
Girl, what happened
I thought you wasn't fucking with me no more
Girl, what happened
You're lying to yourself, (stop lying)
Oh then you compromise with yourself, wait
I thought you wasn't fucking with me no more
Hold up wait
I thought you wasn't fucking with me no more
Hold up wait
Damn girl what happened?
What happened, what happened? First you change your email, then ya number became private
I bet you think you found another nigga you can vibe with
Quit lying to yourself, retrace all ya steps
Fucking with them suckers, they gonna have ya playing with yaself
I'm a smooth operator, you don't need a vibrator
Licking everything below the navel, 'cause I'm able
Ball so maafakin hard, tape my ankle
Ball so maafakin hard, check my bankroll
First you talkin bout you don't fuck with a nigga
Go outta town like you done with a nigga
Really ain't much you ain't done with a nigga
Shots straight liquor make a nigga wanna lick ya
I put the X in the exceptional
I put the X in the extra hoe
I put the X in the X and O
I got the game on professional, yeah
My dick is the antidote
She locked me on top, like an antelope
That time I had smoked with ya best friend
I wanna fuck y'all on the patio
You miss when I kiss on ya earring
You miss when I kiss on your clit ring
That's why I put you in this 16
I'll fuck you and watch on the big screen, yeah! You always say this is ya last time
You couldn't tell her that I care about her
You always say this is ya last time
You said that last time, girl I thought you wasn't fucking with me no more
Girl, what happened
I thought you wasn't fucking with me no more
Girl, what happened
You're lying to yourself (Stop lying!)
Ooh, compromise with yourself (Stop lying!) I thought you wasn't fucking with me no more
Girl, what happened
I thought you wasn't fucking with me no more

Girl, what happened
You're lying to yourself (Stop lying!)
Ooh, then you compromise with yourself (Girl you mine!) I thought you wasn't fucking with me no more
I thought you wasn't fucking with me no more
(Damn girl what happened?)
What happened?
