

L1FEL1KE

Karnivool

You relate through the bloodline
When you can never take anything that I give
Always wanting to relate through me
I go watch you, slowly slip awayYou're wanting to put your trust in
When I can feel this remedy kickin' on
Just to taste it, just to want it
And I can say, "It's not my fault"Say, "It's all right"
When I'm coming down
Not again, it's so l1fel1keCome, make it all right
When I'm coming down
Not again, I'm fragileWould you choose me, or just abuse me?
When I can never take anything that you give
Always wanting to relate through me
I go watch you, slowly slip awayYou're wanting to put your trust in
When I can feel this remedy kickin' on
Just to taste it, just to want it
And I can say, "It's not my fault"Say, "It's all right"
When I'm coming down
Not again, it's so l1fel1keCome, make it all right
When I'm coming down
Not again, I'm fragileYou see, I'll be the one
In your darkest time
(It's not my fault)Should I begin to erase myself?
I'm caught in this picture of you
Should I begin to assess myself?
Tell me it's overIt comes from above, with these feelings
It takes you away, and it buries your soul again
You're now, blessed by ignorance
'Cause you want toSo run with me, if you must follow
I'll take you away to this place
Where we can be free
A place I call, ecstasyNow, you lie alone
Your chance to stop and stare
God, I kiss your bones
And say, it's not my faultSay, it's all right
When I'm coming down
Not again, it's so l1fel1keCome make it all right
When I'm coming down
Not again, I'm fragileWell you say it's all right

When I'm coming down
Not again, it's so 11fel1keCome make it all right
When I'm coming down
Not again, I'm fragile
