It's Over

Dreamshade

I've been trying to find a way
to repair the mess I've made so I wrote a song for you.Everyday seems the same to me.
You walk away leaving nothing left to say,
you make me feel like shit!
I've been trying to find a way
to repair the mess I've made so I wrote a song for youI can't be the way you want.
Stop pushing.
No, I can't stay no more.
It's killing me.
Don't wanna play your game.
Don't wanna feel like this again.
It's over.Now I see what you did to me.
Made me believe there was something wrong with me.
You just screwed up my mind.
I've been trying to find a way
but I guess it is too late so I'm gonna stop now.I will be myself from now on. I will be myself and I will never fall again!I can't be the way you want.
Stop pushing.
No, I can't stay no more.
It's killing me.
Don't wanna play your game.
Don't wanna feel like this again.
It's over.
