

Grey Skies Turn Blue

Mxpx

You say you want me to say, "I'm sorry"
But I don't have to and I don't want to say it
'Cause I'm not sorry I play the game and I can't really say that I like it
Can't really say that I hate it
Can't really say that I paid attention When grey skies turn blue, I'll come back for you
My mind can't change my heart there's nothing I can do
When grey skies turn blue, when dreams do come true
Will you be the way that I remember you? You say that life with me is driving you crazy
But I don't see it, I don't want see
So I, I must be crazy I didn't mean a thing when I said, "Nothing is fleeting"
Or worth repeating, or worth repeating When grey skies turn blue, I'll come back for you
My mind can't change my heart there's nothing I can do
When grey skies turn blue, when dreams do come true
Will you be the way that I remember you? The cold wind on my face is the only thing I felt
In such a long time, in such a long time
It's been a long time yeah, yeah, yeah When grey skies turn blue, I'll come back for you
My mind can't change my heart there's nothing I can do
When grey skies turn blue, when dreams do come true
Will you be the way that I remember you?
Will you be the way that I remember you?
