

Control (Odonis Odonis Remix)

Operators

I have a place in the world of destruction
I have these hands but nothing much to do Another year, another year of elections But turning off there was nothing there for you. And when my heart beats, I'm no victim.
And when my voice breaks here its out of love Can't you tell by the way they carry Evermore evermore it's never enough And when you're gone
They don't leave the document of what you've done Lights come and gone Under glass underneath some system Under some sign that would tell us the way to go.
When they come they come to correct you.
Reasons for wrong, something you'll never know. And when you're gone, they don't leave the document of what you've done
Lights come and gone You can see it, You can read about it
I can stay or you can go
You can hear it, you can talk about it But you'll never know Control Sync a beat and come along the wire baby control
You think you have control but you were lying to yourself lying to yourself
lying to yourself
