Without Your Skin

Keaton Simons

Listen closely, or you? ll never hear me whisper
All the pretty things I? m scared to say I lost
In my mind I know all I can do is kiss you
But I? m caught between the curtain and the crowdAnd I don? t leave? cause I? m afraid to be alone
But it doesn? t even matter now you? re gone
On the outside I seem fine, when you look into my eyes
Baby you? re bound to see me shakin?Without your skin
Without your skin
Without your skin I? m nakedOohhThere? s a picture in my bedroom by the window
And a suitcase just outside my closet door
I don? t know if I should run away or tiptoe
But I feel like I can? t be here anymoreAnd I don? t leave? cause I? m afraid to be alone
But it doesn? t even matter now you? re gone
On the outside I seem fine, when you look into my eyes
Baby you? re bound to see me shakin?Without your skin
Without your skin
Without your skin I? m nakedOohhYou make it sound so easy
To make them all so proud
But when it comes to leavin? baby
I? d rather stick around, ohAnd I don? t leave? cause I? m afraid to be alone
But it doesn? t really matter now you? re gone
On the outside I seem fine, when you look into my eyes
Baby you? re bound to see me shakin?Without your skin
Without your skin
Without your skin I? m nakedWithout your skin
Without your skin
Without your skin
Without your skin I? m naked
Without your skin I? m nakedOohh
