Honeymoon's Over

State of Shock

A shoe box filled with memories
A bedroom trashed
All that we used to be
She's tearin up in halfA diamond ring down the drain
Her suitcase packed
All my clothes are in the bath
She's lookin for a matchLook at the mess I madeHoneymoons over
Now I'm lickin my wounds
Kickin myself, lookin' back
Honeymoons over
And it never crossed my mind
Every time I walked the lineIt's over, it's over
She says Im goin home all alone
The honeymoons over
Now she's goin homeNever thought my life on the road
Would follow me back home
Now she's gonna take everythin
Says I'm never gonna changeAnd now I'm wonderin how to fix
All the shit I did
To put out the fire that I lit
And make my girl love me againLook at the mess I madeHoneymoons over
Now I'm lickin my wounds
Kickin myself, lookin back
Honeymoons over
And it never crossed my mind
Every time I walked the lineIt's over, it's over
She says I'm goin home all alone
The honeymoons over
Now she's goin homeI knew you were there for me
I swore I'd be there too
I love you, I love you
How can I make it up to you?I'm sorry I made you leave
What the hell is wrong with me?
I love you, I love you
Let me make it up to youThe honeymoon's over
Now I'm lickin my wounds
Kickin myselfHoneymoons over
Now I'm lickin my wounds
Kickin myself, lookin back

Honeymoons over
And it never crossed my mind
Every time I walked the lineIt's over, it's over
She says I'm goin home all alone
The honeymoons over
Now she's goin home
The honeymoons over
