Best Goodbye

Kelley Jakle

i know, iknow its time now you know what i know hold me close but not too tigh ill look back but ill be alright i know its hurts i know it would stay forever if i could glad to tell this word alone dont worry ill still smile on my own so raise your glass to every time that we heard no everytime that we proved yes ill raise my glass to every low and every high everytime everytime we felt alive ill raise my glass go ahead and raise your glass give me your best goodbye never say that quite this far look around where we arewe start goal it wasnt luckit was star a dream tonightall this years for one last time stay be here and open armand tommorow cames and start to go so drink with me my oldest freind and raise your glass to everytime that we heard no to everytime that we proved yes ill raise my glass to low and every high evertime we flet alive ill raise my glass go ahead and raise your glass give me your best goodbye dont ask me to pick a day dont ask me to choose a view cause right now they blur in a memory of you dont ask if ill be there dont ask me if i care cause you know i will you know i always do raise your glass to everytime that we heard no everytime we proved yes ill raise my glass to low and every high everytime we felt alive ill raise my glass go ahead and raise your glass give me your best goodbye yeahh..... give me yoir best goodbye ohh.. gieve me your best goodbye

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/