Spider Besider

Secret & Whisper

A wish for all to blossom and to change
There's a mystical, ancient, and forgotten way
Ia cho ku, I'm not as sweet as I've led you
Ia cho ku, with spiders beside herI hear you speak of ancient cherry blossom
And I ask you to take me there
A wish for all
Tradition meets with ocean eyes,
And sea monsters are in the tide
A spider beside herThe sunrise is slowly calling you
Eight arms and legs to hold onto
Her ways, combining old and new
