Could've Had Everything

P!NK

Heaven's sake everyone
For standin' in my way
For ruinning all my fun
You say your doing it for my sakeI thought I did my best
It was nearly good enough
But all that effort I guess
It didn't add up to very much
It hurts me when you call
I hate the way your thinkin'
I could have so easily had it all
I could've had everything,
I could've had everything
This perfect life I'm in,
Screwin' myself over
I could've had everythingI should have had everything
You almost got me thinking
I'm screwing myself over
Screwin' myself overThey say that madness is Doing a thing the same way
You hope its gonna turn out different
But ya doing it anyway
I guess it's what I did with you
But at least I have a reason
So my apologies, wont go to anyone
It hurts me when you say,
That all my close mates hate me
I really thought I had it all
I could've had everything
I could've had everything
It's the perfect life for men,
screwing myself over,
Screwing myself over
I could've had everything
I should've had everything
You almost got me thinking
I'm screwing myself over
I coulda, I coulda, I coulda
I coulda, I coulda, I coulda had everything
I coulda, I coulda, I coulda

I coulda, I coulda had everythingI came so near to thinking
I had something
I could've had everything
It's the perfect life for men
Screwing myself over
Could've had everything
Screwing myself over
