Lend a Hand

Chimaira

You are God's most beautiful creation
From the moment I set my eyes upon you
I knew I wanted to be near
To feel your arms wrap around me
And to share myself with youWould be nothing but ecstasy
Knowing you will make me whole again
Then she said no, I cried out to help you
My friend who does nothing
I watched you high i watched you lowNever falling to far, I am glad to have been here
To help you get through her I know i didn't fulfill
But I helped somehow, I'll take your pain
Create with me, chim was a way for you to breatheI hope it was enough
To help you through this war called love
Take our hand before you leave
One more time, reaching our dreams
We feel incomplete
