

Fill Her

Eraserheads

You don't need to leave it seems a bit naive no need to disagree or seek my history you're staring at my soul my sanity you stole but then I knew all along that anything could go wrong though I can't see you I can't feel you I'm so glad you opened the door and when I get near all my fears disappear and I won't be alone anymore hmooooooooooooo hmooooooooooooo
hmooooooooooooo hmooooooooooooo
