Alive

Circus Maximus

I remember you told me once
What could be the answer to it all
The answer to my soul
I believed in love not magic, needed some time
To figure out what to do with this
To my heart that is (I was so alone)

Why can't you see it?
I need some time alone
Every moment my heart beat
I remember how it used to be

Can you forgive how I used to be?
Even all the stars remain through lonely nights
(They keep shining)
I believed in love
Through the midnight-sun we rolled
Even if the stars remain I know that this won't last forever
(This won't last forever)

We will make it through the night
When you feel alive, and there's nothing you can do
When you can't explain, is there a reason why I'm living?
When you feel alive, and there's nothing you can do
Now I keep on searching for the path that lies ahead
Is the longest way to go

I can see the sun shine up above
I can see the rainbow that glows
Into the fire we burn
I see it, I can't deny it
The feelings I have deep inside for you

When you feel alive, and there's nothing you can do
When you can't explain, is there a reason why I'm living?
When you feel alive, and there's nothing you can do
We must struggle towards this together
Together we will make it through alive
