

Broke Up The Time

The Futureheads

If I hear one more person
Talking about these days
Saying its hard in this day and age
I will explode
How do they know
What it was like 2000 years agoLook at our cousins in the sea
They seem highly together
They seem to be free
But do they do
Whats going down on the land
Because there down in the water
With there heads in the sand[Chorus]
We broke up the time and the put pieces in a different order
We broke up the time and the put pieces in a different order
We look around
And when we bring it down
We gather everybody
And look at what we foundPeople try to tell me you don't feel ashamed
Its nearly finished but its not over yet
And thats being to easy to forget
But do you know
When we go over your head
I don't mean to offend
But you never understand[Chorus][Repeat: x4]
We broke up the time and the put pieces in a different order
Broke up the time and the put pieces in a different orderWe look around
And when we bring it down
We gather everybody
And look at what we found
