

Old Ways

Banditos

I'm going to sleep outside your door
Until I see your eyes see morning light
And what we do can no longer be undone
So naturally And when the sun shines through the trees
And it's only you and me
I hope you smile and I hope you say
I'm so glad you stayed And wrap these arms around you
And fears fade with the dew
We'll be alright, yes at least
For one more night
And I'll show you how
You've been needing
Lessons never learned from teaching
These wounds are going to heal up just fine
I know you're tired of fighting
I've seen it in your gaze
You never did feel quite right
Reminiscing about your old ways
