

An Iceberg Waiting on the Titanic

Twelve Gauge Valentine

You've just reached the end of your rope there's no place to turn there's no place to hide I'd bet you love it you're running away from this outstanding offer..???this will cost you everythingI said we never forget.. no, nothing..this don't look good!your fate is in our hands you're not going to get out of this onedeath has arrived, this just dont seem right..you've just reached the end of your rope
there's no place to turn
there's no place to hide I'd bet you love itI said we never forget
