The Blackout

U2

A dinosaur, wonders why it's still on the earth, yeah
A meteor, promises it's not gonna hurt, yeah
Earthquake, always happen when you're in bed, friend
The house shakes, maybe was it something I said, NedGo, easy on me, easy on me, brother
Go, easy on me, easy on meWhen the lights go out, and you throw yourself about
In the darkness where we learn to see
When the lights go out, don't you ever doubt
The light that we can really beStatues fall, democracy is flat on its back, Jack
We had it all, and what we had is not coming back, Zach
A big mouth says the people, they don't wanna be free for free
The blackout, is this an extinction event we see
Go, easy on me, easy on me, brother
Go, easy on me, easy on me, nowWhen the lights go out, you throw yourself about
In the darkness where we learn to see
When the lights go out, don't you ever doubt
The light that we can really beWhen the lights go out
Out, out
When the lights go out
Out, out
When the lights go out
When the lights go outBlackout, it's clear, who you are will appear
Blackout, no fear, so glad that we are all still here, hereWhen the lights go out
When the lights go out
When the lights go out
When the lights go out, and you throw yourself about
In the darkness where we learn to see
When the lights go out, don't you ever doubt
The light that we can really beWhen the lights go out
Out, out
When the lights go out
Out, out
When the lights go out
When the lights go out
When the lights go out
