Where Would I Be

Niyoki

I remember hard rains and stormy nights,
When I couldn't see the road
Headed down a path of destruction
See I didn't get out of my own way
Should have turned right but I made a left
Steady doing wrong to myself
Wanted it all to end right thereThat's when a second chance came
And it started with you
Thank you for rebuilding me
Baby where would I be if there was no you
Tell me where would I fly if you wasn't my sky,
If you wasn't my strength tell me where would I be
Cuz girl you brought me through hell and back again
Where would I beYou were my angel, you were my high
Now you my reason to live my life
And I never thought I'd leave your side
Together we will survive
You've been there for me, I'll be there for you
We'll be growing strong like lovers do
You believed in me when I wasn't doing so good
And almost given upThat's when a second chance came and it started with you
Thank you for rebuilding me
Baby where would I be if there was no you
Tell me where would I fly if you wasn't my sky,
If you wasn't my strength tell me where would I be
Cuz girl you brought me through hell and back again
Where would I beYour love is unconditional
And will never fade away
No matter where I've been you've always been there
Through thick and thin we wont stop
We will fight till the endBaby where would I be if there was no you
Tell me where would I fly if you wasn't my sky,
If you wasn't my strength tell me where would I be
Cuz girl you brought me through hell and back again
Where would I beOh where would I be
Where would I be
Tell me where would I be
Yeaahh
They say behind any good man is a strong womanCuz girl you brought me through hell and back again

Where would I be
