When I Find Time

Cody ChesnuTT

i don't have time for sex and movies i don't have time; hurry up, give it to me i don't have time to change my mind what a day it's gonna be for you and me, yeah when i find timei don't have time for apologies and puppies i don't have time; better hurry, get to know me i don't have time to read your mind what a day it's gonna be for you and me when i find time to be your shoulder i don't have time for growin' older it's so sad, it's too bad i only got time to think about the time i don't have what a day its gonna be nowwhen i find time to be your shelter its gonna take a longer day to bring us closer and its so sad i only got time to think about the time i don't havewhat a day its gonna be
when i find time
what a day its gonna be when i find timeif i only had one more minute longer i cant imagine what my life would be like but its gonna take a minute more than what ive got just to get it riiiiiiiiight get it righti wanna be there but i don't have the time what a day its gonna be when i find timewhat a day it would be you and me
