Anytime

Cheap Trick

I hear voices inside my head
All of them just wanna talk to you
I can feel your imagination
Running wild deep inside, you know, it's true
This won't be a test of your religion
You won't have to bang the bedroom walls
Can you really hold and keep a secret?
I'll be right here anytime at all
Anytime you wanna call, call
Anytime you wanna come, come over
Anytime you wanna come, call
Anytime you wanna call, come over
'Cause I need your love, I need your love
'Cause I need your love, I need your love
Well, no one thinks that love lasts forever
More than just a lonely day and night
Never thought about the perfect answer

But I've got a place where you can hide
I can feel your lips all around me
A wet kiss waiting to explode
Anytime you wanna call, call
Anytime you wanna come, come over
Anytime you wanna come, call
Anytime you wanna call, come over
'Cause I need your love, I need your love
'Cause I need your love, I need your love
'Cause I need your love, everyone inside my head wants to talk to you
'Cause I need your love, I need your love, I need your love
'Cause I need your love, 'cause I need your love, I need your love
Everyone inside my head wants to talk to you, 'cause I need your love
I can't eat, I can't sleep, gotta leave, nowhere to go, hidin' out
Oh no, it's what I want, what you gonna do now?
'Cause I need your love, yeah, I need your love
