You're Not Alone

Jochen Simms

The time is near when I won't need this phone
Then we'll stay home alone and watch the twilight zone
We're still young and I know you're afraid
But I don't regret, all the plans we've made
Drive in movies always make you sleep
You end up copping Z's, in my backseat
I've seen it in your eyes a thousand times
I see you young again, I see the way you shine
You're not alone anymore and nothing will be like before
You're not alone anymore and nothing will be like before
You're not alone anymore
Read your book while I make some hot tea
I love it when you fall asleep on me
I'm still me and I know you're still you

Together we're in shock, together this is new
You're not alone anymore and nothing will be like before
You're not alone anymore and nothing will be like before
Sometimes I don't understand how you feel
But surely my love for you is real
You and your bleeding heart won't die in vain
'Cause nothing will ever be the same
Nothing will ever be the same, the same
You're not alone anymore and nothing will be like before
You're not alone anymore and nothing will be like before
You're not alone anymore and nothing will be like before
You're not alone anymore and nothing will be like before
You're not alone anymore, you're not alone anymore
