Anarchy

Kush Arora

Break my back
You won't break me
All is black
But I still seeShut me down
Knock me to the floor
Shoot me up
Fuck me like a whoreTrapped under ice, comfortably cold
I've gone as low as you can go
Feel no remorse, no sense of shame
Time's gonna wash away all painI made a God out of blood
Not superiority
I killed the king of deceit
Now I sleep in anarchy, anarchySacrifice to the cause
Turn your code into lawYou compensate
To validate the loss
You take a thief
Nail him to a crossGospel of rage, faction of hate
Deviate from the absolute
Born of revenge, raised on cement
Chaos created governmentI made a God out of blood
Not superiority
I killed the king of deceit
Now I sleep in anarchyI made a God out of blood
Not superiority
I killed the king of deceit
Wake me up in anarchyBorn of revenge, raised on cement
Chaos created governmentI made a God out of blood
Not superiority
I killed the king of deceit
Wake me up in anarchy
Anarchy, anarchy, anarchy
