

Anarchy

Kush Arora

Break my back
You won't break me
All is black
But I still see
Shut me down
Knock me to the floor
Shoot me up
Fuck me like a whore
Trapped under ice, comfortably cold
I've gone as low as you can go
Feel no remorse, no sense of shame
Time's gonna wash away all pain
I made a God out of blood
Not superiority
I killed the king of deceit
Now I sleep in anarchy, anarchy
Sacrifice to the cause
Turn your code into law
You compensate
To validate the loss
You take a thief
Nail him to a cross
Gospel of rage, faction of hate
Deviate from the absolute
Born of revenge, raised on cement
Chaos created government
I made a God out of blood
Not superiority
I killed the king of deceit
Now I sleep in anarchy
I made a God out of blood
Not superiority
I killed the king of deceit
Wake me up in anarchy
Born of revenge, raised on cement
Chaos created government
I made a God out of blood
Not superiority
I killed the king of deceit
Wake me up in anarchy
Anarchy, anarchy, anarchy
