Warhaus

Lay yourself open without any fear
Surrender your imagination to me my dear
And I know you hate to hear me make promises about love
While the silence patiently waits to sink in from aboveOh my love are you feeling me
I fucked it all like a symphony
Baby how did it come to this
Oh my love say at least we did
Knocked it all like a cigarette
Baby how you are haunting me
I've burned the enemy asleep
This is where you should start
It is your will that directs
The bullet into their innocent heart
And I found you sweet whenever I felt like amiss
You had everything it took to hide from ourselves
And so kind of excessOh my love are you feeling me
I fucked it all like a symphony
Baby how did it come to this
Oh my love say at least we did
Knocked it all like a cigarette
Baby how you are haunting me
I gave what I could
Did I give what I could
Honey I gave what I could
? with every breath I give
I gave what I could
I changed it next loss?
Gave what I could
It's over and that's it
I'm as easy a fuck as a fuck can get
I gave what I could
