

Little One

Peter Katz

See the creases in your eyes you don't know what makes me cry there's not always reasons why sometimes I just cry Even if I had the words if I could write it out in verse I don't know what it means to hurt one day I will learn Oh I'm just a little one _ (wide eyed with blonde hair like the sun)
I try to walk maybe one day run but til that day comes I'm just your little one I will need you through the years to shine a light on all my fears be with me through (falls and tears) I need you through the years There will be mistakes sometimes I get hurt you miss the signs you feel guilty of the crime but i will be fine oh I'll be your little one _ (wide eyed with blond hair like the sun) I learned to walk and then I'll run and I might become more than your little one I will go away, some day dye my hair you will hear me say I can do it my own way I will go away I don't want you to be scared you should know I'm well prepared I'll survive the truth or dare no, don't you be scared I was your little one _ (wide eyed with blonde hair like the sun) my walk has turned into a run and I have become someone
