Talking Drum

Japan

I hear a voice
I hear a sound
But nothing plays on my mind
I take the car
I travel 'round
But nothing stays on my mindWhat do you do when things go wrong?
I'm winning
In the heart of the bushlandBut now I'm scared
Now I'm lost in love
All these things were never done
Your burning bridge
My talking drum
Now we're too late for heavenMy talking drum
My talking drum
