Instead

Boxelder

Judging from here, my distance don't seem far.
A thousand footsteps to call my own.
I'm seeing it clearer now-
It's sinking in deeper-
The time that's left before we decompose.

Instead
Before, before, before we find it
Instead
Of what's supposed to be
Supposed to be
Supposed to

Slipping through the cracks on their own
I'm taking a friend every chance I can make
There's so much here to fear
Sometimes more than I can take.

Instead
Before, before, before we find it
Instead
Of what's supposed to be
Supposed to be
Supposed to

Supposed to be.

Instead
Before, before, before we find it
Instead
Of what's supposed to be
Supposed to be
Supposed to

Be.

We all just want to be loved.
We all just want to be loved.
We all just want to be loved.
We all just want to be loved.
