Endings

Majority Rule

Where are you now
Promises of forever.
The talk of future fable is all I've ever known.
Where are you now.
You promised forever.
The places and names I will never forget.
A countdown to endings.
A broken contract.
In saved endearing letters and tired conversation.
A countdown to endings.
This contract can break hearts.
The places and names I can never forget.
Never lost hope.
I've found you now.
My forever today.
To stop the counting.
