Messed Up

La-Ventura

Whaa? I'm backYou don't say that I'm pretty
All these simple things adding up to big ones
There is where you meesed up
No movies or flowers, hours not knowing
Where you are or who you're with
There is where you messed upYou keep on actin' like I really need a brother
Man, I don't need a brother
Better get your wish together
Can't keep on holding on waitin' for you
And baby, there is where you meesed upYou keep on actin' like I really need a brother
Man, I don't need a brother
Can't keep on holding on, waiting for you
And, baby, there is where you meesed upYou keep on actin' like I really need a brother
Man, I don't need a brother
Better get your wish together
Can't keep on holding on, waitin' for you
And, baby, there is where you meesed upI don't need your money and no dinner
I got jewelry, winner to loser
And, baby, there is where you meesed upYou take me for granted
And expect me to stay right here
And wait on you while you're having fun
There is where you meesed upYou keep on actin' I really need someone Can't keep on holding on yeah, you, you, you, yeah
You keep on actin' like I really need a brother
Better get your wish together
Can't keep on holdin' on, waitin' for you
And, baby, there is where you meesed upYou keep on actin' like I really need a brother
Better get your wish together
Can't keep on holding on, waitin' for you
And, baby, there is where you meesed upYou heading straight for the gate?
Time to cut my dead weight to you
And baby there is where you meesed up
I heard it all a thousand times
Tried to mess with my mind but you
And, baby, there is where you meesed upI don't need ya dawg
That's where you went wrong
I don't need ya dawg
See there is where you meesed up
That's ya went wrong wrong wrong

She don't need ya dawg
And there is where you meesed upYou keep on actin' like I really need someone
You keep on actin' I really need someone
Can't keep on holding on, no, no, noYou keep on actin' like I really need a brother
Man, I don't need a brother
Better get your wish together
Can't keep on holding on, waitin' for you
And, baby, there is where you meesed upYou keep on actin' like I really need a brother
Man I don't need a brother
Better get your wish together
Can't keep on holding on, waitin' for you
And, baby, there is where you meesed up
