The Strangest Girl

Looper

God help me,
She's the strangest girl I ever did see.
But heavens above,
Can it be I've fallen in love?I'd better get myself a doctor,
I'd better get myself some help.
I think I need a strong prescription
To steady me at least
Before I need a priest.God help me,
She's the strangest girl I ever did see.
But heavens above,
Can it be I've fallen in love?
God help me,
She's the strangest girl I ever did see.
But heavens above,
Can it be I've fallen in love?Her voice is like the sound of angels,
Her laugh is like the sound of bells,
But one thing I just can't get over-
It troubles me, you see,
To know she dreams of me.God help me,
She's the weirdest freak that ever did breath.
But heavens above,
Can it be I've fallen in love?
God help me,
She's the strangest girl I ever did see.
But heavens above,
Can it be I've fallen in love?
She's the strangest girl
In the whole wide world,
The strangest girl
In the whole wide world.
