Daisychain

Knives at Noon

or you can have some folk rock. daisy chain- lady of the sunshine.

dirty heart, mr blue. A given grace to dying few.
i lick the flame, these matches burn.
one taste of love, a child is born wild horses cry down on this earthly knoll the deserts skin too dry to grow

so sugar man, today no thrills
i spent my heart, none left to steal.
her daisy chain, her sugar kiss,
forever young we'll live in bliss.
yes, im in love with how you fill in my heart

hullelujah, it made me shiver.
i hope i never have to sing it to yah so can i take your hand, on this trip of mine our ride awaits, this wonderland has anyone seen a leprechaun?
i saw him last end where the colours run

so sugar man, today no thrills
i spent my heart, none left to steal.
her daisy chain, her sugar kiss,
forever young we'll live in bliss.
yes, im in love with how you fill in my heart (x2)

[instrumental]

yes im in love with how you fill in my dark.
