Margot

Meese

When she came her family was there
And all her things were neatly prepared
When the moment came I was scared
If I look at her I'll break down
If I don't she'll know it somehow
When she came there wasn't a soundCome on, come on, come on (x6)Listen for the beat of her heart
Listen as your plans go apart part (?)
Listen but there's nothing there
When you lose what you never had
Left with impossible plans (?)
Listen in but you can't hearWe knew that this could happen
I feel the distance creeping
One there in my position (?)
Moving against my fingers
Against my human nature
Come on, come on, come onCome on, come on, come on (x6)Are you through with punishing me
I thought that you would at least
Give what you promised me
Are you through with punishing me
I thought that you would at least
Give what you promised meWhat would a father say
He would say to come right home
What would a father do
He would try to comfort to youWhat would a father say
He would say to come right home
What would a father do...When she came her family was there
And all her things were neatly prepared
When the moment came I was scared
If I look at her I'll break down
If I don't she'll know it somehow
When she came there wasn't a soundCome on, come on, come onShould have done something (x6)
