

Same Damn Song

More Amor

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

(Hey, are you ready?)
Day after day, night after night squeezing your eyes for somebody's lost empire questioning old, and questioning life posting the bills for somebody's own desire taking the notes, and everyone knows at the light of the match my whole world will catch fire Now your dancing alone while I'm standing up here and everyone's singing the same damn song and it goes.....and i'm home.... (as it goes)I'm glad I must say that I'm enticed with this time such a critical change to build my own empire developing space on such positive waves i'm taking those notes and i'm filling in blanks discovering ease, recovering eyes i'm blowing this smoke up everyones asked, why? (why?)Now i'm dancing alone while your standing up here and everyone's singing the same damn song, and it goes...and i'm home...(as it goes)Well I can honestly say I wasn't questioning my decision to rule, and create my own empire desired to know what its like to be heard all of these words, there's just so many words such a beautiful day and such limitless time are we blowing this smoke up everyone's asked, why? (why?)And now your dancing alone while i'm standing up here and everyone's singing the same damn song (and it goes...)and i'm home...(as it goes) and i'm home.....
