

The Hidden Track

Fleming & John

I'm so small, do you think I matter at all?
When I call your name out loud
Can you hear me in the crowd? Oh, when I look up into the starry sky, I think my, oh my
I get dizzy and weak and it makes me think
I have the life span of a fly Can you see me breathing?
Hear me screaming
For you, for you I'm so small but if I was a movie star
My youth would be sealed in a can on a reel
Then I could be twelve feet tall That's why I wear my hair so big
Some people think it might be a wig
But it's all part of my plot to prove I'm not a dot Can you see me breathing?
Hear me screaming
For you, for you Can you see me breathing?
For you, for you I'm so small, I am so small, I'm so small
I'm so small, I'm so small, I'm so small
I'm so small, I'm so small, I'm so small
