

Buried Alive

Lovers and Liars

What have I done now?
Lost again somehow
I'm getting better and better at making things
worse

So much pressure
I can't take it
Somehow I must
Learn to fake it

I don't feel a thing
Not even the dirt
'Cause I'm, Buried Alive
Just waiting for the time

I'm buried alone
I'm Buried Alive
I should've known
I should've tried

Here lies the one
Who couldn't survive
Buried alone
Buried Alive

Who have I hurt now?
Lost my head somehow
I'm getting worse and worse at making things better

So much pressure
I can't take it
Somehow I must
Learn to fake it

I don't feel a thing
Not even the dirt
'Cause I'm Buried Alive
Just waiting for the time

I'm buried alone
I'm Buried Alive
I should've known
I should've tried

Here lies the one
Who couldn't survive
Buried alone
Buried Alive

Hey,
I hope you never forget
To bury your regret
Before it buries you

I'm buried alone
I'm Buried Alive
I should've known

Here lies the one
Who couldn't survive
Buried alone
Buried Alive

At first I was barely alive
Now I'm buried, buried, buried
At first I was barely alive
Now I'm buried, buried, Buried Alive
