

Once Upon a Time

SOJA

I told her, "Let's take it slow", she heard,
"Forever" instead
I said that this is a start and she hear the same thing again
So I didn't say one word, but what she hear in her head
Is all that she wanted to hear, damn I tried to tell her before, the words they come out too late And then she went for the door, and I didn't stand in her way
And then she got to the door, and these were the words that she said "Dont ever call me no more" I think she really meant to say: "Call me, never let me go" and I said, "I told you so" there's no chance No I will never ever change 'cause I'm still in love with yesterday "It's the same old story, the story goes:
"Once upon a time, in a land far away There was a princess alone, alone in need of king
And then he rides into town and then she gets carried away
Yeah, she got carried away
I think she wants to hear me say "Call me, never let me go" and I said "I told you so"
There's no chance, no I will never ever change Cause I'm still in love with yesterday "Call me, never let me go" and I said "I told you so"
There's no chance, no I will never ever change Cause I'm still in Love love never let me Go go you never let me
No no no no don't ever let me go Not livin' in yesterday
I find a confiable place to stay
I told her "let's take it slow", she heard "forever" instead
