For Amelie

Leaves' Eyes

Why don't you feel me?
Why can't I hold your hand?
Never said that you'd leave me
And I know you are somewhereI held you up
Every time you were down
Your crying stopped
When I was around butWhy don't you love me?
Enough to stay with me
Now tell me truly
Was it there in your heart too?All that I'm left with
Is a dream of me and youI held you up
Every time you were down
Your crying stopped
When I was around butYou filled my soul
With your beauty and with hope
We're different although
We were just like water in sandWhy don't you feel me?
Why can't I hold your hand?
You never said that you'd leave me
And I know you are somewhereI held you up
Every time you were down
Your crying stopped
When I was aroundI held you close
When you fell to the ground
And now you've torn all my hopes apart
You could have said goodbye
