

Evil Angel

Ed Bruce

For to see my depth of sorrow
You are not allowed to follow me
    Into this town square
    And then run away
Evil angel with your cleft tongue
    When you kissed me
    On this town square
    All the lights came on
At sunset thought you'd stay
    Evil angel bearing apples
    When you kissed me
On this drawbridge as the boats do
    How was I to know you'd flee
    Tear down these monuments
    Bury the coat of arms
    And build for me a factory
Evil angel when you're faced with
    Hatred's daggers in my honor
You're no match no scratching hearts
    That no longer bleed
Oh, evil angel tear down the monuments
    Evil angel bury the coat of arms
And rebuild for me these memories
    For to see my depth of sorrow
