Gentle Wars

Jason Rubero

Same arrangement
Different places we adore
A different attachment
Same reaction as before
Afraid to open that closed door

Yes I want you to live
Yes I want you to feel

On Economy Island
Trees are zero, gentle wars
Tell me where are my people
I'm pinned to the steeple
In a town called lonely

Yes I want you to live
Yes I want you to feel
What else can I give?
That'll help you to heal?

Every low point in your life
Just sets the stage for higher ground
Every shadow over you opens the door
To a brighter time
To a brighter time

Yeah I want you to live
Yes I want you to feel
What else can I give?
That'll help you to heal?
