Louisa Wendorff

Choose me, take me in your arms
Pull me back until I feel your tension
Release me
The time has come to face the wind
Face the wind and soar

Somethings coming I see it now
Keeps me moving against this crowd
I'll be rising above these clouds
I won't come down, won't come down
Somethings coming I see it now
Keeps me moving against this crowd
I'll be rising above these clouds
I won't come down, won't come down

arrow, arrow, arrow, arrow
Our love is our love is
Choose me, take me in your arms
Pull me back until I feel your tension

Something's coming I can see you now
Keeps me moving against this crowd
I'll be rising above these clouds
I won't come down, won't come down
Somethings coming I see it now
Keeps me moving against this crowd
I'll be rising above these clouds
I won't come down, won't come down

Arrow, arrow, arrow, arrow
Our love is, our love is beautiful
Arrow, arrow, arrow, arrow
My love is, our love is Free as a feather, on the cusp of forever
Floating on your love, high love
Free as a feather, we're together soaring

somethings coming I see it now
Keeps me moving against this crowd
I'll be rising above these clouds

I won't come down, down

arrow arrow arrow arrow
I'll be rising above these clouds
I won't come down

Arrow arrow arrow arrow
Arrow arrow arrow arrow
our love is, our love is, our love is powerful
Arrow arrow arrow arrow
