

I Should Have Known

Foo Fighters

I should have known that it would end this way

I should have known
there was no other way Didn't hear your warning Damn my heart gone deaf

I should have known look at the shape you're in
I should have known but I dove right in One thing is for certain as I'm standing here
I should have known

Lay your hands in mine
heal me one last time
Though I cannot forgive you yet
No I cannot forgive you yet
to leave my heart in debt

I should have known
I was inside of you
I should have known
there was that side of you Came without a warning caught me unaware

I should have known
I've been here before
I should have known
don't want it anymore
One thing is for certain
I'm still standing here
I should have known

Lay your hands in mine
heal me one last time
Though I cannot forgive you yet
No I cannot forgive you yet

To leave my heart in debt

No I cannot forgive you yet
No I cannot forgive you yet
To leave my heart in debt
I should have known

Maybe you was right didn't want a fight
I should have known
Couldn't read the signs Couldn't see the lies
I should have known

Though I cannot forgive you yet
to leave my heart in debt
No I cannot forgive you yet
No I cannot forgive you yet
to leave us all in debt
I should have known
