Dogwood

Deep inside I tried to find
A purpose for me no surprise
I've pushed myself awaySometimes I refuse to think
And sometimes I just need a break
Leave myself alone today, todaySit and drink the air
And stop to let out all the hurt
Collapse inside your arms
I never want to let this goI'm not in tune with anything
If I go on like this I'll scream 'til I go mute
And people who can't speak don't have
To answer for themselves
I'll scream this one for you
(Scream this one for you)I know what failure is
I understood it all along
Salvation was a gift
But someone wrapped it wrong so wrongLife has a funny way
Of leading you on
Letting you down, letting you knowDeep inside I try to find
A purpose for me no surprise
Please leave me alone
