Globe Alone

Blur

Who maddest one on the M One
Who hasn't stopped sucking his thumb
Who very straight and never grins
Who cares what car he's driving inHe is because he saw it on a commercial break
And if he doesn't get what he wants
Then he get a headache
Because he needs it, wants it, almost, loves itHe's here on his own, on globe alone
Here on his ownWho joined health club to glisten into hi-fi precision
Who mobile phone gives him the bone
Who very keen on Sharon StoneHe is because he saw it on a commercial break
And if he doesn't get what he wants
Then he get a headache
Because he needs it, wants it, almost, loves itHe's here on his own, on globe alone
Here on his own, on globe alone
And then he saysWho eats at the new brasserie
Who only ever gets merry
Who wouldn't be seen at bedtime
Without putting Calvin Klein's onHe is because he saw it on a commercial break
And if he doesn't get what he wants
Then he get a headache
Because he needs it, wants it, almost, loves itHe's here on his own, on globe alone
Here on his own, on globe alone
He's here on his own
