All Else Is Hollow

Poisonblack

Lust equals fire when you come to me
Obsession and craving burning inside of me
Pain feeds desire as you cut me deep
Sharpened caresses of debaucheryIt runs through my veins and through my heart Assuring that death won't do us part
Then leaving me craving torn apart... I just want youRust equals blood and I hear you sigh
"pain will be gone in a blink of an eye"
Fear turns to dust with a blissful cry ion's how we cleanse the lie... I just want youIt's useless to tame, so useless to point your fin

Self-pollution's how we cleanse the lie... I just want youIt's useless to tame, so useless to point your fingers and blame

The hunger that's screaming out your name It's needless to say, I need you inside my heart to stay All else is cleansed away, all else is hollow anyway
