

Olly Olly Oxen Free

Beefy

So, you wanted
That's what you get for wanting, you got it
That's what you get for getting, forgotten
You're gardening a rotting bed of Reagan era icons
So, let's start it
Let's start it from the minute you felt it
You felt it like a prison, or panic
You felt it like that coffee scene from Moscow on the Hudson
So, I'll be honest
It's not as if you're happy about it it's not as if you're animatronic
It's not as if you couldn't go at any time you wanted
Olly Olly oxen free
All the people you will never be
Olly Olly oxen free
Olly Olly Olly Olly Olly Olly Olly
Fate! You caught it
You colour it the colour you want it
You carpet it, that's awful convenient
You paint yourself a nice white room with stripes and matching curtains
So, you forfeit
You cannot build a river, across it
You cannot hold your own heart hostage
You do not have the strength to gag yourself in every closet
The wrong place, wrong mind, timings always bad
You're such a sad case, misplace (when the suntin enter) of a worldwide heartbreak Taking it in stride cause you're an expert, aren't you?
Aren't you just to die
But doesn't (?) witness

Working on your songs all night to justify your worthlessness
To anyone who's watching
If they only saw your alter ego pretty in the shop window
When you got auctioned
I was in your Olly Olly Oxen free, all the people you will never be
Olly Olly Oxen free
Olly Olly Olly Olly hide it and the king can

See no evil, hear no evil, capture me and throw the key a-
See who evil, hear no evil, capture me and throw the Key away
 Throw the key away
 So, it's over
 You're lying in a coffin of clutter
 Your father and your sister, your drummer
Are sorting through your soft sound tapes and lightsabre collection
 And, you wonder you wonder if you could have done better
 You wonder if your should have surrendered
Before you learned that nobody actually wants to fucking (??)
 Didn't you, didn't you, didn't, didn't you see
 Didn't you, didn't you, didn't, didn't you see
 Didn't you didn't you, you, you didn't see me
 Didn't you didn't' you, you , you didn't see me
 Olly Olly, all the people
 Olly Olly oxen free
 Olly Olly Olly Olly, hide it and the king can
See no evil, hear no evil, capture me and throw the key a-
See who evil, hear no evil, capture me and throw the Key away
 Throw the key away
 Throw the key away
