

Jake

Lisa Loeb

im going as far as i can go away from you jake and the hole youve sunk me into.
i wish i could belong here with you and just be but thats not all that im about your life was built on accidents, like meeting me

you write everything down in your grocery list... people do this.
even insects buzz like airplanes why cant we-fly away.

your dad died cause his heart hurt arching away- its 45 years dragging your mom along, well i dont want that and
neither do you-
neither do you.
if i am not fun and i am not interesting, perhaps i am not interested in you neither are you.

you cant stand in front of an oven if its warm cause the fumes are dangerous.

away from you jake and the hole youve sunk me into.
i wish that i could belong here with you
and just be.
but thats not all that im about to do.
