You Say

Saving Jane

I've been calling and calling for you
But you answer and I shut my mouth
I've been searching and searching for you
But myself I don't want to be foundYou say I am, you say let go
You say believe, but its not that easy for me
You say wait, you say right now
Don't you see you're already one foot in the ground
You sayI've been wicked and wild and wrong
And I've wondered the price of my shame
I've been hiding my face for so long
It's a wonder that you know my nameYou say come home, you say I'm here
You say there are some things you just can't control
You say let me, you say believe
Why do you search for the answers you already know?
You sayI am the way and the light and the truth
Don't be misled by the flight of your youth
Faith in the things you can't see to believe
What if you had faith in me?You say rest here, this is your home
Don't you see that you knew I was here all along
You say
