You Say

Saving Jane

I've been calling and calling for you But you answer and I shut my mouth I've been searching and searching for you But myself I don't want to be foundYou say I am, you say let go You say believe, but its not that easy for me You say wait, you say right now Don't you see you're already one foot in the ground You sayI've been wicked and wild and wrong And I've wondered the price of my shame I've been hiding my face for so long It's a wonder that you know my nameYou say come home, you say I'm here You say there are some things you just can't control You say let me, you say believe Why do you search for the answers you already know? You sayI am the way and the light and the truth Don't be misled by the flight of your youth Faith in the things you can't see to believe What if you had faith in me? You say rest here, this is your home Don't you see that you knew I was here all along You say
