Be Your Man

Ivan & Alyosha

I want to be the man
Who gives you all the presents underneath the Christmas Tree
Well they're all from me
I want to be the boy
Who'll run and tell his baby every time he skins his knee
Or breaks his toy
I want to be your boy, be your boy, be your boy
I want to be your boy, be your boy, be your boyI want to be the man
Who understands his woman and he knows she do right be me
Oh you understand
I want to be the boy
Who gets you all the pretty little things in your magazines
Oh it's such a joy
I want to be your boy, be your boy, be your boy
I want to be your boy, be your boy, be your boyI want to be the man
Who understands his woman and he knows she do right be me
So you understand
I want to be your man, be your man, be your man
I want to be your man, be your man, be your man
